Key Takeaways

Yes, wire mesh cable trays in Zambia are customizable, with suppliers offering tailored sizes, materials, and configurations to meet specific project requirements.Customization Options

Zambian manufacturers and suppliers provide wire mesh cable trays in various sizes, shapes, and materials, allowing clients to select dimensions, heights, and lengths according to their project needs . Common customization features include:

• Widths: Typically ranging from 50mm to 600mm

• Heights: Options like 50mm or 100mm

• Lengths: Standard lengths from 1m up to 2.5m, with the possibility to match custom drawings

• Materials: Stainless steel (SS202, SS304, SS316) or galvanized steel for durability and corrosion resistance

• Colors and finishes: Some suppliers offer coated or painted finishes for specific environmental conditions
Supplier Services

Manufacturers in Zambia, such as Jeetmull Jaichandlall and Cable House, emphasize tailoring trays to industry demands, including providing support for system design, installation guidance, and compliance with industry standards . They also offer accessories like bends, connectors, and supports to ensure flexible installation and efficient cable management .

Benefits of Customization

Customizable mesh cable trays provide several advantages:

• Optimized space usage and efficient cable routing

• Enhanced airflow to prevent overheating

• Improved safety by reducing hazards and physical damage to cables

• Compliance with project-specific requirements, including load capacity and environmental conditions
How to Procure

Clients can contact suppliers directly to submit project specifications or drawings, request quotes, and discuss material and size options. Many suppliers also provide bulk orders for industrial or export projects, ensuring full certification and adherence to international standards like IEC 61537 . In summary, Zambian wire mesh cable trays are highly customizable, and suppliers are equipped to provide tailored solutions for industrial, commercial, and infrastructure projects, ensuring both quality and compliance with project requirements .
