1. Elco Ltd. Elco is a leading Israeli manufacturer of electrical equipment, including distribution boards, switchboards, and low-voltage panels. They provide solutions for residential, commercial, and industrial applications, with a focus on safety and compliance with Israeli standards. 2. Tadiran Electrical Systems Tadiran produces a range of electrical distribution products, including modular distribution boxes, control panels, and industrial switchboards. Their products are widely used in both private and public sector projects in Israel. 3. Schneider Electric Israel While part of a global company, Schneider Electric operates locally in Israel, offering electrical distribution boards, smart panels, and energy management solutions. They provide both standard and customized solutions for industrial and commercial installations. 4. Israel Electric Corporation (IEC) Although IEC primarily operates the national electricity grid, they collaborate with local manufacturers and suppliers for distribution infrastructure projects, which may include custom distribution boxes for substations and industrial facilities . 5. Other Local Suppliers Several smaller Israeli companies specialize in electrical enclosures, load centers, and low-voltage switchboards. These include companies that provide custom fabrication for industrial and commercial projects, often integrating smart grid and automation technologies.

Considerations When Choosing a Manufacturer
• Compliance with Standards: Ensure the manufacturer meets Israeli standards (SI) and IEC international standards for electrical safety.

• Customization: Many projects require custom-sized or modular distribution boxes.

• Support and Service: Local manufacturers often provide installation support, maintenance, and spare parts.

• Integration with Smart Systems: Some manufacturers offer smart panels compatible with energy management and monitoring systems. For sourcing, contacting local distributors or visiting trade shows like Electra Israel can help identify additional manufacturers and suppliers of electrical distribution boxes in Israel.
