Legrand Mauritius offers a wide range of connection boxes, terminal blocks, and distribution cabinets suitable for residential, commercial, and industrial applications. Their products include surface and flush-mounted cabinets, weatherproof enclosures, and modular systems with earth terminal blocks, ensuring compliance with international standards . CMH provides high-quality electrical solutions, including distribution boards, data systems, and accessories for cable management. They collaborate with global brands to supply reliable terminal boxes and enclosures for construction and industrial projects . Electrical.mu specializes in distribution boxes and breaker enclosures, offering products like Practibox S and Easy9 surface-mounted cabinets. These enclosures are designed for safety, durability, and modularity, with IP-rated protection for indoor and outdoor installations . Numelec focuses on cable organization and electrical accessories, including durable nylon cable ties and terminal solutions. They have over 30 years of experience in the electrical industry and provide both home and industrial solutions . Smart Electrical supplies a complete range of sockets, switches, circuit breakers, and cable enclosures. They offer nationwide delivery and cater to residential, office, and industrial electrical needs .

Considerations for Selection
• Type of installation: Indoor vs. outdoor, surface-mounted vs. flush-mounted.

• Protection rating: IP40, IP65, or higher for weatherproof applications.

• Modularity: Number of modules per row and compatibility with switchgear.

• Compliance: Ensure products meet IEC standards for safety and durability. These suppliers provide both local availability and online ordering options, making it convenient to source cable terminal boxes in Mauritius.
