EK SOLAR EK SOLAR delivers turnkey solar solutions across the Caribbean, including Suriname. Their HD-800 and X-Series combiner boxes are designed for high-humidity environments, featuring IP65-rated enclosures that reduce maintenance costs and support hybrid systems with battery integration . EK SOLAR emphasizes compliance with IEC 62989 standards, ensuring safety and reliability in tropical climates . They cater to residential, commercial, and industrial solar projects. Solmatec NV Solmatec NV is a Suriname-based solar energy company providing PV system components, including combiner boxes, solar panels, and energy storage solutions. They focus on delivering reliable, sustainable, and cost-effective solar solutions for homes, businesses, and industrial applications . Solmatec NV has been involved in large-scale PV projects, including the delivery of 10,000 solar panels for Suriname's first phase of photovoltaic installations. International Brands Global manufacturers like ABB also supply prewired solar combiner boxes suitable for Suriname. ABB's combiner boxes include overcurrent protection, surge protection, and monitoring devices, and are available in plug-and-play configurations for medium and large installations . These products are often imported and integrated by local solar companies.

Considerations for Suriname

• Climate Adaptation: Suriname's tropical, high-humidity environment requires combiner boxes with IP65 or higher enclosures to prevent corrosion and reduce maintenance .

• System Size: Residential systems with fewer than three panels may not require a combiner box, but commercial or industrial installations typically need boxes supporting 6–24 PV string inputs .

• Certifications: Look for IEC 62989 compliance to ensure safety and compatibility with hybrid or grid-tied systems .

• Maintenance: Biannual inspections are recommended, especially before and after the rainy season, to maintain performance and safety .

How to Source

• Contact EK SOLAR directly via email or WhatsApp for tropical climate combiner boxes and hybrid system solutions .

• Reach out to Solmatec NV for locally available PV components and integrated solar solutions in Suriname .

• For international options, distributors of ABB solar combiner boxes can provide prewired solutions suitable for Suriname's solar projects . By considering these suppliers and specifications, solar developers in Suriname can select combiner boxes that optimize system efficiency, safety, and longevity in tropical conditions.
